DAY OBSERVED IN MANY WAYS

Most Folks Spend Thanksgiving
Feasting While Others Roam
Fields in Search of Game.

62 LICENSES OUT THIS WEEK

Chicken Takes Place of Turkey on
Menu at the County Jail and
Poor Asylum Today.

While the majority of folks chose to observe Thanksgiving day by feasting, there were a number who felt the lure of the open fields and went in search of game.

The streets were deserted by noon while most of the people of Rushville were gathered around the well known 'groaning' tables. Stores were closed, some of them all day. The banks never opened and the post-office closed at ten o'clock, one city delivery being made. The public schools were closed today until Monday.

The inmates at the county poor farm and the two prisoners at the county jail were not forgotten today and as in years past special efforts were made to give them a fine dinner. Chicken took the place of turkey on the menu at both the jail and the poor farm. The twenty-six inmates at the poor farm were served both chicken and duck and all the things that go with them to make a Thanksgiving dinner. Superintendent Newbold of the poor farm did not raise any turkeys this year.

The prisoners at the county jail, Marshall Spurrier, colored and Clayton Johnson were given an elaborate dinner by Sheriff Cavitt, consisting of chicken and oysters. The number of prisoners there is the smallest in some time.

More people took advantage of Thanksgiving as a holiday to go hunting than ever before. The woods today were full of hunters and the supply of rabbits promised to be diminished materially providing hunters had any "luck" County Clerk Taylor issued a total of thirty hunting license yesterday, and no doubt could have sold some this morning had the office been open.

The office was crowded most of Wednesday with people wanting hunting licenses. Men who could not get off from their work to secure the licenses sent their wives to procure the necessary paper to enable them to enjoy the day in the woods. Nineteen licenses were issued on Tuesday and thirteen on Monday of this week.

NEW "LITTLE NAVY" LEADER

Death of Rep. Witherspoon Makes
New Selection Necessary.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 25.—Representative Hensley of Missouri was today picked by the "little navy" contingent of house Democrats to succeed the late Representative Witherspoon of Mississippi as the nominal leader of the late opponents to the administration's preparedness program.

News of Witherspoon's death at Meridan, Miss., was regarded a severe loss to big navy opponents. For years he has lead the house fight on the battleship program.

FOR LOSS OF WHEAT

Offutt and Woods Bring Suit Against
C. H. & D. For $100.

Oliver M. Offutt and Floyd Woods filed suit Wednesday afternoon against the C. H. & D. railway for damages demanding $100. The plaintiffs alleges that through the negligence of the railway in allowing weeds and grass to grow along its right-of-way a field of six acres of growing wheat owned by Offutt and Woods was destroyed by fire. The fire is alleged to have occurred on June 21, 1914. The farm on which the fire occurred is located near Arlington.

RED CROSS SEAL CAMPAIGN OPENS

Christmas Stickers are Placed on Sale at All Drug Stores and School Children Will Help.

75 PER CENT FOR THE COUNTY

The campaign to sell Red Cross Christmas seals to combat tuberculosis was officially opened in Rushville today by the Rush County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

The seals were placed on sale at all of the drug stores. Seals have been in the hands of the principals of the township graded schools since last Saturday when the Rush County Teachers association was in session here. School children will aid in the work.

It is not definitely decided yet that the Psi Iota Xi sorority will be in charge of the sale in Rushville, but it is highly probable that the sorority girls will undertake the charitable work. They sold seals last year and made a most enviable record. They have the proposition under consideration. Thirteen thousand seals were sold in Rushville alone last holidays.

Seventy-five per cent of the proceeds from the sale goes to the county society to be used in anti-tuberculosis work here.

CAUSES A HITCH IN NEGOTIATIONS

American Demand "Place of Safety"
be Provided Persons on Torpedoed Vessels Holds up Plans.

IN CASE OF WILLIAM P. FRYE

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 25.—Demands of the American government that a "place of safety" be provided for persons on vessels torpedoed by submarines have caused a hitch with Germany in negotiations over the sinking of the American schooner, the William P. Frye.

Although the last American note in the Frye case was sent to Germany over a month ago, Berlin has so far declined to accede to the American principle that open boats in mid-ocean can not be regarded as a place of safety. While both governments are agreed on arbitrating indemnity for the Frye's loss, the reluctance of Germany to concede the other point has prevented arrangements for arbitration.

REAL SPIRIT OF DAY IS LACKING

Much of Thanksgiving Feeling is of
"Jack Horner" Sort, Declares
Dr. D. Ira Lambert.

"WHAT A GOOD BOY AM I"

Thus Exclaims "Turkey Day" Celebrant After Feasting to Full
—Annual Services Held.

So much of the Thanksgiving spirit of the present age is of the "Jack Horner" sort, where the celebrant feasts to his full and then exclaims, "What a Good Boy am I" according to Dr. D. Ira Lambert, pastor of the First Presbyterian church who preached the annual Thanksgiving sermon at St. Paul's M. E. church this morning.

Instead of the real significance of the day being felt, much of it is lost, was the burden of the Rev. Mr. Lambert's sermon.

The union services of the Protestant churches of the city were held at ten o'clock. Special music was furnished by the M. E. choir. The collection was turned over to the visiting nurse fund.

The subject of the Thanksgiving sermon this morning at the St. Paul's Methodist church was "The Keynote of Praise." Text: First Timothy 1-17. "Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory forever, amen."

"In earnest appeal to His young friend Timothy, St. Paul unfolds the secret motives of his great life. Hardly surveying his past, he discloses the keynote thereof in this sublime, strain of praise. Every life its keynote. Every object of nature has its keynote, and when that is struck all life trembles in unison with it.

"A noted violinist played upon the keynote of a great bridge until the great structure swayed and trembled. The keynote of the life of the great apostle was praise not only in a part but all of his writings. Even in the dark cold stenchful Mammertine prison he could cry out 'rejoice in the Lord always' and then as if this superlative were not enough added and again I say rejoice.

The spirit of thanksgiving filled all his life and governed it and became the habit of his life. His thoughts and words and acts were one perpetual strain of thanksgiving. That ought to be the attitude of every life. It is a good thing to set apart one day of the year for thanksgiving and praise but it would be more fitting to have one day for all the unkind ungrateful words and deeds and the other three hundred and sixty four for gratitude and thanksgiving.

"It not only needs to cover the whole year, but all things as well. A good deal of the modern thanksgiving spirit is of the little 'Jack Horner' kind which feasts itself to the full and then with a superior air cries out 'what a good boy am I.'"

"This keynote must so master the life that every event will be marshalled by it until even 'bane and blessing pain and pleasure by the Cross are sanctified,' until we can realize that 'all things work together for good to them that love God' and there shall be one continual thanksgiving.

"But if this be true we must put ourselves in the supreme relationship to God, ourselves, and our fellowmen, as did the great apostle and find the great reservoirs of strength in the four-square life which was his. The things which should walk our thanksgiving are manifold, but

CASSIUS SMITH GOES ON TRIAL

Rush County Man Will Plead Self
Defense in Case in Which he is Charged With Murder.

KILLED HIS FATHER-IN-LAW

First Evidence Will Likely be Introduced Friday—Jury is Not Yet Completed.

It is probable that the introduction of evidence will be started Friday at Noblesville in the murder trial of Cassius C. Smith, a Rush county man who is charged with killing his father-in-law, Marcellus Hollingsworth, near New Augusta, Marion county, on February 19 last.

The case started Wednesday when the first talesmen were examined. When court adjourned late yesterday afternoon, the jury had not been empanelled, but it was expected it would be obtained some time Friday. There was no session of court today on account of this being Thanksgiving.

Smith was born and reared in this county and was the son of the late Walter Smith, who died a few weeks after his son committed the crime. The Smith family lived near Sexton. Fifteen character witnesses have been summoned from here by the defense for next Monday, but it is now believed that the state will have finished its case by that time.

Questioning by the state's attorneys yesterday of the talesmen did not indicate that the death penalty would be asked. No prospective juror was requested to give his opinion on the extreme penalty for murder. A special venire of forty men has been drawn from which to select the jury.

Smith will plead self-defense, and his wife, who is a daughter of the murdered man, will testify in behalf of her husband. She has considerable money in her own right, and has employed counsel to defend her husband including Henry N. Spaan, of Indianapolis. Alva J. Rucker, prosecuting attorney of Marion county, and C. S. Wilsie, of Indianapolis, are representing the state.

The defense will attempt to prove that Hollingsworth was an excessive drinker and quarreled with his son-in-law and daughter because they were going to move from the farm and leave him alone; that on the evening of the shooting, Hollingsworth was in the kitchen quarreling with Mrs. Smith when Smith came in, that Hollingsworth threatened his daughter and that not till then did Smith draw his revolver and fire twice. Hollingsworth died two hours later.

The state contends there had been ill feeling between the defendant and his father-in-law and that the murder was premeditated. The case was taken to Hamilton county from Marion county on a change of venue.

BANDIT ON HUNGER STRIKE

Gunman Caught in Indianapolis Refuses to Eat Food.

(By United Press.)

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 25.—Police today declared that Arthur Houser alleged murderer of W. H. Smith, national cashier of the Woodmen of the World, has not tasted a morsel of food for sixteen days. The hunger strike followed an attempt at suicide frustrated by the Wichita police shortly after he was captured in Indianapolis. Arrangements for forcibly putting food into Houser's stomach was being made today.

MAY BE TAKEN TO STATE REFORMATORY

Ruling of Attorney General Possibly Means Removal of Delbert Newman From State Prison.

ESCAPED FROM STATE FARM

Delbert (Bud) Newman of this city, serving a term of from two to five years in the state prison at Michigan City for escaping from the state penal farm, will likely be transferred to the state reformatory at Jeffersonville, as a result of an opinion handed down yesterday by Attorney General Stotsenburg.

The attorney general held that a person less than thirty years old who is convicted of having escaped while a prisoner at the state penal farm should be committed to the reformatory at Jeffersonville instead of being sent to the state prison. If the opinion of the attorney general is followed all of the prisoners under thirty years old will be sent to the state reformatory.

Governor Ralston said recently that he would ask the next legislature to change the law to provide for the commitment of the younger of the escaped prisoners to the reformatory.

TO BE PUBLIC IN EUROPE SAME DAY

President Wilson Works Industriously on His Forthcoming Message on This Holiday.

IT MUST BE PRINTED TODAY

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 25.—That his message on national preparedness may be read in Europe the day it is delivered to congress, President Wilson locked himself in his study again today and let Thanksgiving day plans take care of themselves. If the message is to get away on a boat reaching Europe before December 7, the president had found, it had to be printed today.

So, while plans for the big dinner were changed from time to time to meet the occasion, the work of completing the final draft of the message went steadily forward.

At the government printing plant enough printers to turn out the documents in an hour after received were kept ready. It appeared that the message would reach New York by tomorrow morning.

Friends of the president saw in his driving work of today confirmation of their belief that the message will prove the most important President Wilson has delivered since elected.

TELLS WHAT IS LACKED BY SOME

Evangelist Smith Says There Are
Church Members Without Repentance, Courage and Faith.

OTHERS LACK SELF-CONTROL

Declares Resurrection of Christ is
The Gibraltar of the Evidences of Christianity.

Evangelist J. H. O. Smith in his sermon at the Main Street Christian church revival Wednesday night, showed what some church members lacked. He said some were without repentance, courage, faith and self-control while others have never confessed Christ and have never been baptized.

There were three more conversions last night, bringing the total up to seventy-three. Friday night will be the last night here for the evangelist and his singer, the Rev. H. H. Saunders. Services will be held as usual tonight.

J. H. O. Smith's sermon last night was from the text, Matt. 19:16-22, "What Lack I Yet." He spoke in part as follows.

"In answer to the question, 'Good Master what good thing shall I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus answered, 'Keep the Commandments.' Meaning the Ten Commandments, which were the constitution of the Jewish Law, and especially the moral part of the code. The young man replied 'All these have I kept from my youth up, what lack I yet.' Jesus lived under the Jewish law, and for the reason required its observance. The new dispensation had not been inaugurated, so that the answer given by the Apostles to inquiring sinners, as we have the record in the Acts of the Apostles, was not given in the instance recorded above, for the reason that the facts of the gospel were not complete and the Great Commission had not been given. The Saviour applied a test which touched the weakness of the young man, for he loved his possessions more than he loved Christ.

"Some lack faith in Christ because they say they cannot understand the wars of extermination in the Old Testament or the story of Jonah and the whale. That Christ arose from the dead is a fact of history. His resurrection is the Gibraltar of the evidences of christianity. Christ never asks anyone to believe without evidence, but He has given abundant proof of the facts of the gospel. Some in the church lack faith.

"Others lack repentance. There is some sin, they will not give up, there are some wrongs which they will not right.

"Others have never confessed before men their faith in Christ, 'Every tongue shall confess that Jesus

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

MAY HAVE TO PAY BACK LARGE SUM

Treasury Department Faces Awkward Position, Hanging on Decision of Supreme Court.

INVOLVES THE REBATE CASES

If Provision of Underwood Bill is Upheld, Depleted Treasury Must Pay Back $20,000,000.

Washington, Nov. 25.—The Democratic administration is approaching a very awkward situation.

There are on the docket of the United States Supreme Court the so-called five per cent. rebate cases. They involve a tremendous sum in customs revenues, loosely estimated at between fifteen and twenty million dollars collected under the provisions of the Underwood tariff law. On the court's decision hangs the fate of these millions.

If the Supreme Court upholds the five per cent rebate provision in the Underwood law, then the sum in dispute belongs to the foreign importers and must be paid back by the government. The treasury deficit long ago became alarming. If this enormous additional sum has to be paid out, it will still further emphasize the failure of the Democratic fiscal policy.

On the other hand, if the Supreme Court decides that the five per cent. provision of the Underwood law is invalid, the highest court in the land will have convicted the Democratic Congress of a humiliating blunder and still further emphasize its record of legislative inefficiency.

The fact that the attorney general in order to save the revenue involved, is attacking the validity of the law Congress worked six months to pass, makes the situation still more complicated.

From a political standpoint, the best thing that could be done best thing that could happen to the Democratic party in this case would be to have a decision go over until after election.

Whether or not this happens depends largely upon the time the case is heard. It is up to the government to take the first step to advance the date of hear. Litigents on the other side of the case have complained bitterly over what they term unreasonable delay, and for weeks have been urging the government to move more quickly.

Meanwhile, regardless of when the hearing may be held, Democratic leaders are wondering what can be done to offset the attack that will be made on their fiscal policy on the one hand and their legislative efficiency on the other.

GREECE SATISFIES ENTENTE POWERS

Allies Feel Certain That Greeks Will Not Interfere With Their Balkan Campaign.

TRIUMPH FOR CONSTANTINE

(By United Press.)

London, Nov. 25.—Greece has satisfied the allies that there will be no Greek interference with their Balkan campaign under any circumstance according to an Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company.

"The reply," says the message, quoting official authority, "is friendly, meets the Entente powers' demands and gives all guarantees that are considered essential."

The required assurances are said to have been contained in a communication handed by the Athens government to the allies diplomatic representative in answer to Wednesday's joint note.

King Constantine has triumphed, however, in his determination to keep his country neutral. This ended the Greek crisis, it was believed here today.

Figures on Minorities

Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama is about to don his toga. Already he is bursting with great ideas regarding the Senate. He is strong for cloture—a polite French term which by interpretation, means "gag rule." Mr. Underwood is accustomed to applying the gag rule, having learned to do so when he was foreman of the Congressional crew that did Woodrow Wilson's bidding at the Capitol. His argument for transferring this instrument of political oppression to the Senate—where, from the beginning free speech has ruled and has greatly benefited the country—is that "the Senate is distinctly a minority body. It does not represent a majority of the people of the country."

Senators are elected by States. If Mr. Underwood was thinking of himself and of his own States, he is absolutely correct. For he does not represent anything like a majority of the people of Alabama.

Mr. Underwood was elected to the Senate in 1914. By the census of 1910, Alabama had 2,138,093 inhabitants, who certainly had not diminished in number four years later. Yet Mr. Underwood, when elected Senator, received only 63,389 votes. His Republican opponent had 12,320; a Progressive candidate had 4,263; a Socialist got 1,159; there were 2 scattering. This makes a total vote of 81,133 out of a population of 2,138,093.

Of the other States which elected Senators in 1914, the nearest to Alabama in point of population is Iowa, which had 2,224,771 inhabitants by the census of 1910.

Iowa in 1914 voted thus on the Senatorship; Cummins, Republican, 205,832; Connolly, Democrat, 167,251; Spurgeon, Independent, 24,490; Schenck, Progressive, 15,058; Christian, Prohibition, 6,009; McCrillis, Socialist, 8,462. This makes a total of 427,102 votes out of a population of 2,224,771.

In other words, while there were only 86,382 more population in Iowa than in Alabama, there were 345,969 more votes cast. If Alabama had voted as freely as Iowa did, there would have been 410,461 ballots cast instead of the beggarly 81,133.

There is no mystery in these figures. In Iowa every citizen of voting age may go to the polls and vote as he pleases in the full assurance that his vote will be counted as cast. In Alabama a large majority of the citizens of voting age are not permitted to approach the polling-place by reason of peculiar statutes which constitute a political gag rule even more vicious than the one which Mr. Underwood now proposes for the Senate.

If "the Senate is distinctly a min-

Why's "Gets-It," for Corns, Like a Kiss?

Because Everybody Tries It, Everybody Likes It, It's Painless and Takes But a Moment to Apply.

"Gets-It" is the wonder of the corn-pestered world. Millions say so, because millions have used it. That's what makes it the biggest selling corn remedy on earth today. "Gets-It" will surely get that corn or callus you've been trying for a long time to get rid of—take it right off "clean as a whistle." Apply it in 2 seconds—put your stocking and shoe right over it—nothing to stick, nothing to hurt. You needn't fuss with thick bandages that make a package out of your toe. No knives, razors and scissors, no tape, no trouble. It's simplicity itself, sure, quick, painless. Try it also for bunions and warts.

"Gets-It" is sold at all druggists, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Even the mysterious and marvelous manipulating methods of Secretary McAdoo cannot uphold the balance in the treasury. The National treasury statements show that in the seven days from November 5 to 12 the balance dropped $10,000,000. HOOSIER HISTORY

Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.

INDIANA TO THE FRONT

The prompt energetic action of Governor Morton resulted in Indiana's taking prominent part in the very beginning of the war. The Cincinnati Commercial in commenting upon the passage of Indiana troops through the city, said: "The governor of Indiana has outgeneralled the governor of Ohio. The contrast in the condition of troops proves it. The Hoosier troops are all armed with rifled muskets are uniformed and furnished with their complement of camp equipment. The stout and brawny appearance of the Indiana troops was universally remarked."

TEACHERS GATHER FOR CONVENTION

National Council of Teachers of English Opens in Chicago Tonight, Fifth Annual Session

SCIENCE PROFS ALSO MEET

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Teachers from all over the country gathered here today for the opening sessions of the fifth annual convention of the National Council of Teachers of English at the Auditorium Hotel tonight. Two hundred and fifty delegates the first of the meetings which will continue tomorrow and Saturday. At the same time that the National Council opened its sessions, the National Association of Academic Teachers of Public Speaking convened at the Congress Hotel, with several hundred out of town delegates present. This convention also will be on three days.

The advance guard of 300 delegates to the 15th annual convention of the Central Association of Science and Mathematics Teachers arrived today. The meetings of this organization will start tomorrow at the Carter H. Harrison Technical High School and conclude Saturday night. With these delegates came also delegates to the meetings of the Western Economic Society which convenes at Hotel La Salle tomorrow and continue through Saturday.

CRADLE ROLL DAY.

Cradle Roll Day will be observed by an all day meeting at the M. E. church at Blue Ridge Sunday, November 28, Sunday school at 9:30 followed by an address by Mrs. Earl Haymond of Waldron, superintendent of the cradle roll department. The Rev. V. W. Wykoff, pastor of the First M. E. church of Shelbyville will deliver an address in the afternoon. Bring the little folks. Come and spend the day.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

REDUCE DUTY ON GAS MANTLE

Not Satisfied With That, Makers of Underwood Law, Put Duty on Imported Raw Product.

A COMPARISON IS MADE

Greater Number of Mantles Imported Under New Bill, But Revenue is Much Less.

Washington, Nov. 25.—When the manufacturers of gas mantles sought to illumine the beclouded intellects of the Democratic members of the ways and means committee to Congress, engaged in smearing the Underwood tariff law into some sort of form, they only succeeded in further befuddling those benighted apostles of free trade. The light of reason was to them a blinding glare. It was "light that failed."

Gas mantles are manufactured in Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Michigan, Wisconsin, Kansas, and New Jersey, a few factories being scattered in other States. About 50 companies are engaged and several millions of dollars in capital are involved. The sales average $4,000,000 annually, and the product amounts to about 65,000,000 mantles. Twenty-six to thirty per cent. of the cost of manufacturing gas mantles goes to labor, the rest to material, overhead charges, etc. The wages paid to labor in this industry are a trifle more than twice as much as those paid in Germany in the same line of work, while material costs from thirty to thirty-five per cent more here than in Germany. Competition among American manufacturers has reduced the price of mantles from 35 and 50 cents each to 10 and 20 cents for the same grade.

Several contentions were made during the hearings on this subject before the House committee. W. E. Brown, representing 95 per cent of the gas mantle manufacturers, wanted the duties on mantles, and thorium, the chief material from which they are manufactured, to remain as they were under the Republican law, at 40 per cent. He declared that a reduction in duty on thorium would be absorbed by the German producers of that product, inasmuch as they had no competitors. Mr. Dallas Bondeman advocated putting thorium on the free list, stating that if this were done his interests could stand a reduction of the duty on mantles to 30 per cent ad valorem on each, Mr. Bondeman again presented a table showing conclusively that such action would give the German manufacturers an advantage of $3.67 a thousand.

With characteristic bull-headedness the committee put a duty of 25 per cent on gas mantles, not sufficient for protection, and lowered the duty on his product of 40 per cent, which did nobody any good. It was another instance of the classical Democratic policy of giving the foreign manufacturers a double advantage by removing protection from the American industry and putting a duty on a raw material used by that industry. Under the Republican law the American manufacturer of gas mantles at least had a protective duty on his product of forty per cent.

The Underwood tariff law went into effect October 4, 1913. Comparing the period October 1, 1912, to June 30, 1913, under Republican tariff rates with the period October 4, 1913 to June 30, 1914 we find that for the former period there were imported gas mantles to the value of $49,897 on which revenue in the sum of $19,919 was collected, while for the latter period we imported gas mantles to the value of $60,620, which paid revenue in the sum of $15,155. The Democratic argument that lower duty rates increase importations to such an extent as to increase revenues is again proved to be unsound. Here we have an increase of 18 per cent in imports within a period of nine months, and a decrease of 24 per cent. in the revenue, a displacement of American labor corresponding to the increase in imports, a loss of revenue badly needed by an impoverished

HE HAS PLAN TO BUILD UP TRADE

James E. Watson Says Extension of Foreign Business is Impossible Without Merchant Marine.

GIVES HISTORY OF COMMERCE

Tells Indianapolis Business Men Most of Business is Now Being Carried by Foreign Ships.

"Any effort to build up a larger trade between the United States and South America will be futile until we have a well-developed merchant marine," asserted James E. Watson of Rushville in an address to members of the Advertisers' Club in the Chamber of Commerce Building Wednesday, says the Indianapolis Star.

Mr. Watson said any program of naval preparedness would be inadequate without a merchant marine, because of the need of auxiliary cruisers and colliers in time of war. "A lack of trading facilities, a lack of banking connections, and the fact that our merchants and manufacturers have not tried to meet the desire of Latin Americans accounts for the condition of our trade with the Southern continent," said Mr. Watson.

"Without ships we can not hope to compete with Europe and other countries. In 1895 as much as 97 per cent of our foreign commerce was carried in American bottoms, 65 per cent. in 1861, and last year only 61 per cent."

Laws enforcing higher standards of construction and maintenance and better pay and care for crews of American ships have sent the traffic abroad, he explained. Subsidies, in his opinion, are the only means to offset the lower costs of foreign shipping. He declared against government ownership of ships because it might lead to government ownership of other activities, which should be left to private initiative.

"We hear talk of a war with Japan," he continued. "That is impossible. Since the Pacific steamer Minnesota was withdrawn from American registry because of the law forbidding railroads to own steamships, our last vessel has disappeared from the Pacific and it is a Japanese lake."

"To communicate with our island naval stations we must use vessels flying the Japanese flags. The War Department recently issued an estimate that it could man the Philippines with 250,000 men in sixty days, supposing the men were available. It couldn't do it in sixty months, because the Japanese control the ocean."

treasury, and no diminution in the price of gas mantles to the public. It is one more example of the fallacy policy of the Democratic Party.

TWENTY-FIVE TAKE PART IN BIG RACE

Annual Turkey Trot Attracts Classy Field of Starters in Indianapolis Today

MANY PRIZES WERE OFFERED

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 25.—The annual "turkey trot" a road race under the auspices of the consolidated Motorcycle club took a flying start at Thirty-ninth and Northwestern avenue today going north to Noblesville. The route includes Noblesville, Westfield, Lebanon, and returning to Indianapolis on the Dixie air line road. There were 25 entries, including amateurs and professionals. According to F. A. M. state commissioner Carr, this promised to be one of the most successful runs ever staged here.

There were three prizes in each of the four divisions, with money for pros and medals and merchandise prizes for amateurs. The event was open to any rider in the state. The four divisions were singles, twins, sidecars and factory racing teams. All took part in the same run with the side cars starting first.

It was expected the course would be turned in one hour and thirty minutes or better.

TEAM OF "DEMONS"

(By United Press.)

Seymour, Ind., Nov. 25.—Football enthusiasts from Columbus came here today with a team of "demons" confident they would take home the big end of the score of a game with the local team. Several college players have been secured by the local aggregation, however, and with their help the home team said they could not lose. Much interest has been worked up over the game as these two cities are strong rivals in everything.

RUSHVILLE WON.

The Rushville high school team defeated the Centerville team last night 32 to 23. The game was only a practice game for the locals. Many people took advantage of the opportunity and inspected the new gym. It was the first public appearance of the high school team on the new floor.

—Mrs. Winifred Dill and children, Wade and Emily, went to Falmouth this morning to spend the week end with relatives.

New York, Nov. 25.—The slowly dying custom of playing big football games on Thanksgiving is reflected in today's schedule. Only two games of more than local interest are scheduled for Eastern teams. In the West, one inter-sectional combat—the Syracuse-Montana game—alone is of more than passing interest. At Philadelphia and Pittsburgh this afternoon the two undefeated teams of the East swing into action, and on the results hinges to a large extent whether Cornell will have an edge on Pittsburgh or vice versa in the final accounting.

Cornell should have a comparatively easy time with Pennsylvania, which is completing a disastrous years replete with coaching troubles. Pitt, however, has a tough proposition in Penn State, which already has licked Pennsylvania and came near beating Harvard.

WAR NEWS OF ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

* Seven hundred British marines perished when the British battleship Bulwark blew up at Sheerness by accident the British claimed. Russia sent Prince Troubotzkoy to Belgrade to settle the quarrel between Bulgaria and Serbia and win Bulgaria's support for the allies. A Russian committee reported thousands of women and babies being hanged or shot in Galicia.
* Germany's request for an armistice in the Argonne was refused. England threatened further steps to protect her interests if the U. S. didn't curb Ecuador's and Colombia's wireless stations' activities in connection with the Germans.

ANDREW CARNEIGE IS 80 YEARS OLD TODAY

(By United Press.)
* New York, Nov. 25.—Andrew Carnegie, the father of the steel industry, the millionaire who said it is a sin to die rich, is 80 years old today. Mr. Carnegie, despite reports to the contrary, says he is strong and well and expects to live many more years.

CONGRESS START TO BE DEFENSE DAY

Defense Society Asks Co-operation of All Organizations to Make Monday, December 6 Notable Day

CARD APPEAL WILL BE MADE

Monday, December 6th, the opening day of Congress, has been named by the Defense Society as "Defense Day" throughout the United States,—the most timely occasion for holding mass meetings and addressing letters and telegrams to Congress on behalf of better national defense.

In case there is an earlier meeting of Congress the opening day will then be chosen for "American Defense Day."

In order to make the occasion an impressive one, the American Defense Society has requested the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce of the various cities, asking that they designate this Day as a Flag Day over the city of Rushville, on which day all citizens who are in favor of a greater national defense are urgently requested to show such belief by hanging out flags at every house.

At the same time the American Defense Society is distributing a card appeal to be signed by voters and sent to their respective Congressmen and Senators, urging action at the next session of Congress in favor of adequate national defense. Cards may be had upon request at the National Headquarters of the American Defense Society, 303 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and
Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water
before breakfast to wash
out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

REAL SPIRIT OF
DAY IS LACKING

what is needed is that supreme mastery of our life and its resources which 'overcome the world.'

"This fourfold anchorage of his life was first found in the great truth of the Fatherhood of God. There can be no real gratitude and thanksgiving without a recognition of God. The atheist, has no occasion for a thanksgiving. He has no one to thank unless he thanks himself because without the fatherhood of God he can not catch the true spirit of even the brotherhood of man and therefore cannot even thank his neighbors aright. The deist has no occasion for a thanksgiving because he would ask no one but nature to thank. It remains for the theist, the believer in a personal god to put himself in the right attitude of thanksgiving.

"But when he remembers that this divine author of all good is his father then his heart rises up with a perpetual gratitude which time does not alter, and he sings 'My father is rich—I am a child of the king.'

"The second place he declares this gratitude on behalf of the Saviourhood of Christ. Unless we fathom our lost condition and see how much we owe to our redemption through Christ unless we remember we are 'bought with a price,' unless we shall see that infinite love until we cry 'Oh, it is wonderful that we should care for me, enough to die for me,' we can never bring from our lives the true song of gratitude and offer the sweet incense of price.

"The third element of which he here speaks is the right relationship to others, or the true brotherhood of man. No man can be truly grateful and forget his brother. 'How can a man love God whom he has not seen and hates his brother whom he has seen.' The true brotherhood of man rests in the fatherhood of God and when that is fully realized,

"The war drum shall throb no longer, And the battle flags be furled In the Parliament of man The Federation of the World."

And one glad anthem of praise shall ascend unto the divine Author and Father of us all.

"One other thing is needed to complete this four fold relationship. We must not only be in the right attitude towards God and our fellow men, but we must do; we must practice it. And so he speaks of the servant hood of self. No life learns the key to thanksgiving until it has learned to serve. The motto of the British sovereigns for generations and that spirit which has made them great is the German motto from their old Anglo-Saxon ancestors, 'Ich Dien, I Serve.'

Thus the greatest characters of earth have found true nobility and triumph in service for others.

"The best of life comes when it has caught this fourfold vision and enacted it. There is a legend that a wizard called Ingratitude once waved his wand over an Oriental city and turned all to stone and men and beasts alike stood just where they were like lifeless. But a youth in whose being thrilled hope and thanksgiving came by with a silver trumpet and blew one long and cheering note and all leaped again into life and victory.

"Thus it ever is with a spirit of gratitude and thanksgiving. Life and spring time rise at its command and the soul blends with the life eternal."

Johnson's Drug Store Will Return
The Money if Mi-o-na Does
Not Relieve Dyspepsia

Among all the remedies in Johnson's popular drug store, there are that they have willing to sell on a guarantee to refund the money if they do not cure.

Mi-o-na, the famous dyspepsia remedy has helped so many of their customers that Johnson says, "If this remedy does not relieve you, come back to our store and we will cheerfully return your money."

Anyone who has dyspepsia, indigestion, headaches, dizzy feelings or liver troubles, should take advantage of this chance to be made well without risk of spending their money to no purpose. Mi-o-na will relieve you, will regulate the digestion, will enable you to eat what you want. If it does not do all this it will not cost you a cent.

Johnson's Drug Store has sold hundreds of boxes of Mi-o-na and has yet to receive the first complaint from any customer. Such a record is simply marvelous and speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

Do not suffer a day longer with disordered digestion. If Mi-o-na does not give you complete satisfaction you have Johnson's personal guarantee to return your money.

Brings Suit Against Nettie Mae
Orme-Crawford, Alleging She Treated Him Cruelly.

INDISCRETE ACTS CHARGED

Harry Crawford has filed suit for divorce from his wife, Mrs. Nettie Mae Orme-Crawford. The complaint states that they were married August 3, 1913 and separated on March 4, 1914. He alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, stating that she was cold and indifferent towards him.

The complaint states that she was high tempered and ill-natured and was continually doing indiscrete acts and things for the purpose of tormenting him and to effect a separation. The plaintiff states that she told him she did not love him and that their married life was one of continual wrangle. Chauncey Duncan represents the plaintiff.

REAR ADMIRAL WAS

British Naval Officer Lost His Ves-

Against Traditions

NOW RANKS HIGH IN SERVICE

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Oct. 26 (By Mail)—Dismissed in 1910 with dishonor for losing his ship, Captain E. S. Fitzherbert has just been appointed a Rear Admiral of the British navy, squarely against the traditions of the service.

Until the great war began the Admiralty adhered strictly to the practice of demoting commanders who lost their ships through negligence and never granting them another command. Captain Fitzherbert lost his vessel, the Crusier Bedford, by stranding on the Korean coast. He was court-martialed and dismissed. Later he was allowed to reenter the navy as a superintendent of contract-built ships. His success in this work re-established the Admiralty's confidence in Fitzherbert and he is now in the high ranks of the service.

Rear Admiral Fitzherbert is a brother of Lord Stafford.

KHAKI MAKES GOOD TARGET

English Officer Suggests That One Man be Dressed in Blue Another in Red and so On

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Oct. 13 (By Mail)—Khaki, field grey and German green as invisible colors for armies are dismal failures. Fourteen months of war in the field has proved that the most invisible army of all would be one whose soldiers were clad in models of Joseph's coat.

Such at least is the verdict of a high British officer, who in months at the front has made a study of the invisibility of colors.

In clothing an army, the highest point of invisibility he says would be obtained by garbing each man in a different color; one in green, the next in blue, another in grey, one in red and so alternately, according to the color expert's scheme. If this proved impracticable each man should be dressed in a combination of soft toned colors. Either scheme says the officer, would enable an entire army corps to merge inconspicuously into any background.

Like the Scottish kilts, the olive-drab khaki of the British army is based on custom, not science, he declared. Khaki originated in the British Indian army and later got to England. The European war has shown that it is far more satisfactory on the Indian plains or the African veldt than limed against the landscape of France or Belgium.

Observers unanimously have reported that against the snows of winter or the green foliage of spring or summer, the khaki-clad Tommy is a conspicuous target. The same is declared to be true of the greyish green of the German uniforms.

during the summer is a fat man wearing a sport shirt and the most distressing sight in the winter is to see someone trying to get along without A GOOD STORM BUGGY. If you knew how warm one of my storm buggies would keep you, how well they are made, now nice they look, and what a general comfort they would be to the whole family, you certainly would own one before the end of the week. I have used special pains to obtain a line of storm buggies that have all the little things that make them desirable, quality and style together with a comfortably designed cushion and back, easy riding springs, fine finish and the best of material throughout, are some of the essential things found on them and you are welcome at all times to call and see for yourself and I assure you it will be a pleasure to show you the detail construction of these buggies at any time. The construction of a STORM BUGGY makes lots of difference in the draft and I will explain to you why these buggies are lighter draft than others. It only takes a few minutes of your time to look at our stock and it will mean years of regret if you don't. Now is the time to get ready for winter, SO DO IT NOW.

YELLOW BOOK IS A BAROMETER

President Wilson Keeps in Touch
With Sentiment of People
Through Newspaper Clippings

TWO MEN READ THE PAPERS

Mighty Little Going on That he Does
Not Know—Nothing Gets by
White House

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—Joseph P. Tumulty, is a devoted reader of the Yellow Book. This is not a magazine of French yarns nor a theatrical publication, nor anything like that. In fact the public cannot purchase it at any newsstand or book store. There has been only one issue, a strictly limited edition consisting of a single copy.

The Yellow Book is a collection of clippings from fifty representative newspapers published throughout the country, dealing with administrative, political and general governmental questions. It is through the daily additions to this book that President Wilson keeps in touch with public thought.

President Wilson has been credited with this keen practice of keeping his ear to the ground, his finger on the public pulse and his eyes on the score-board of national sentiment very closely. It is one of his ways of following the thought of the people, as reflected in the press. The President does not have time to read fifty papers; at least not every day. The White House therefore, has a clipping bureau consisting of the newspapers and two men to do the clipping.

Every evening as he leaves the White House, Secretary Tumulty stops for The Yellow Book and takes it home with him, there to peruse it under the influence of a good cigar and comfortable slippers. In the morning he takes it back to the Executive offices and if on the previous evening, he has found any item he thinks would be of interest to the President, he tells the executive all about it.

Usually there are no extraordinary results from either the President's or Secretary Tumulty's reading of The Yellow Book but recently there was an example of what can result. A story had been published in a metropolitan newspaper which did not coincide with the facts.

Accordingly, the author was politely but firmly handed his passport at the White House offices and it was several days before he was again received.

Dispatches from Cornish, N. H., at the time the President was framing his second Lusitania note to Germany, further indicated that the President watches. The Fourth estate. It was then reported that President Wilson was reading the smaller papers of the country, rather than the metropolitan dailies, on the assumption that the former are closer to their constituents than the latter. It has been said that this reading had something to do with the phraseology of the note.

At any rate, there is mighty little that goes on in this country, having to do with the nation's business that gets by the White House Yellow Book.

MUNCIE EATS FISH FOR DINNER TODAY

Mayor Sets Example And Turkey Was Missing From Many Tables—Fighting H. C. L.

CHEAPER FOR POOR PEOPLE

(By United Press.)
Muncie, Ind., Nov. 25.—Mayor Rollin H. Bunch sat down today to a fish dinner, while the breezes wafted into him from his neighbors kitchens the odors of savory turkeys.

Mayor Bunch realized too late that in the enthusiasm of a new idea one may commit himself to a sorrowful duty. Recently, when a movement was started here for fish dinners for Thanksgiving day, "because turkeys are too expensive for poor folks," Mayor Bunch and other well to do people eagerly approved the sacrifice. Said Mayor Bunch:

"I urge the idea on everybody strongly. It is very painful on the man next door, to see his neighbor and his neighbors friends surrounding a turkey platter when he knows that he and his wife and his kiddies are unable to have the same fare."

The mayor realized even more fully today how "very painful" it is, but he fortified himself with the thought that fish really contains more nutriment than turkey.

Scientists discover the cause of bleeding gums and loose teeth

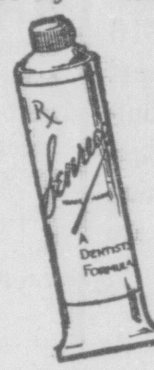

The old idea that bleeding gums and loose teeth (symptoms of pyorrhea) are due to little pieces of tartar or bone under the gums, has been exploded. Scientists have made the astounding discovery that this disease is caused by a germ which is found in every human mouth.

This germ is the most active and destructive enemy of your teeth. Are you protecting them against it? You can ward off its constant attack and escape the dread results of the disease by using the proper corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for this treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sental Remedies Co., 506 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

TAX COLLECTED IN ALL SEASONS

Foreign Countries Never Fail to Levy Tariff Rates, Even on Christmas Gifts.

INQUIRIES ARE RECEIVED

Many Persons Write Washington to Know What Custom Duties They Must Pay.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Many weeks in advance, the preparations are made for the international tours of Santa Claus. Americans who are planning to send Christmas presents to persons in foreign countries want to be sure that those who receive the gifts will not be compelled to pay any charges. Many letters come annually to Washington, asking what to do to avoid any difficulties. The communications have already begun to arrive, and are being answered by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce.

The writers of these letters which, before the end of the year, will have come from every part of the country, are particularly interested in tariff rates which must be paid on gifts in the lands to which they are sent. Many express regret that there should be such a thing as a foreign tariff in the season of generous giving. Some indicate that they think the charges are really omitted. They believe that during the holidays the barriers are torn down.

The truth, however, must be told in replying to these inquiries, and the Bureau is compelled to inform its correspondents that whatever the customs tax is in any foreign land on any class of presents, that tax is collected in every season.

Many persons who write to Washington, asking for tariff rates in particular countries, fail to specify the kinds of articles that are to be sent abroad as Christmas gifts. It is quite necessary that such details should be given in order to learn the amount of the tax. The Bureau cannot send out an entire tariff schedule in answer to each letter, and even if it did, very few persons would know what to do with it after they received the document.

The first of the 1915 letters arrived on November 11, and was addressed to the Treasury Department. The writer asked for the rate on "Christmas gifts" to Canada, and the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, to which the matter was forwarded, was unable to reply until it was known whether it was some mechanical toy for a child, a diamond stick pin for an absent friend or a warm garment for some deserving person, that was to be sent as a gift across the national boundary. A large proportion of the letters usually received have this same defect. They are sent to various departments in Washington, every Christmas season. But all come eventually to the Bureau which has the desired information.

Many persons in the past have asked what method should be adopted in order that the tariff charge might be paid at the point of shipment in this country, by the giver of the gift. All such queries have been answered uniformly with the statement that there is no direct way in which the import duty charged by another country can be paid here, but if the package is placed in the charge of an express company, provision can be made for payment of duty by the express agent abroad.

Although there is no exemption from custom house charges for Christmas gifts, there are some conditions under which certain gifts going from country may escape payment. Some governments rule that wedding presents brought in by subjects shall not be taxed. Some also exempt possessions that are part of an inheritance. But the season of universal giving is not on the tariff calendar as one when the pathways between the nations shall be cleared of obstructions.

This is Turkey Gobbler's Thanksgiving Swan Song

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Somewhere Near Nirvana, 4 A. M., Nov. 25.—I A. T. Gobbler, being about to depart this life by virtue of the exigencies of fate, President Wilson's proclamation and other circumstances governed largely by the criterion of so many cents per pound do, as I stand upon the brink of eternity, gazing down a fearsome vista of chopping blocks, and axes, and silver, and snowy linen, and many platters, declare this to be my final message to a cold and hungry world.

Yesterday an Egg, today a Square Meal and tomorrow a Feather Duster! Woo is me! Rudely sat upon by an old woman for days before I reach the world, heekled through infancy by hawks and foxes, in childhood ignored, and stuffed to stupidity in the fullness of youth with treacherous food that foreshadows fate even as it fattens, I am butchered in my prime to give some boy a stomach ache. To gobble and be gobbled is the keynote of my life. Would that I might live to see my wattles wither! But no, my kin and I must struggle on, walking head first out of saloons, or riding in delivery wagons wrapped in paper sacks; ruminating in dark cellars on the death to come at dawn; or, fettered in abandoned coal bins, dreaming of easy tree top roosts of former days, nor wotting aught of the cranberry garnished bier that is to be. A tragic life whose end I greet, serene in the knowledge that I shall stand forth showing no white feather, having none. (Signed)—A. T. GOBBLER.

TELLS WHAT IS LACKED BY SOME

Christ is Lord.

"Some have never been baptized, a commandment enjoined by Christ upon all who have arrived at years of accountability.

"Some lack courage to stand for Christ in the presence of opposition. Others lack knowledge of the word of God, although we have an open bible and all can know the will of God. Others lack self-control. We cannot govern our tongues as we should. Some have an ungovernable temper. Others lack patience, and others Godliness. And so many lack brotherly kindness. And most of us are lacking love.

"When weighted in the balance in which God weighs men, we all fall short and need the mercy of God. None of us will be justified because we have perfectly kept a perfect law. We therefore need forgiveness, and God's grace if we are to be saved at all."

NO TURKEY FOR INMATES

Logansport, Ind., Nov. 25.—When the 1,100 men and women confined and employed at the Northern hospital for the insane at Longcliff here sat down to dinner today, the usual Thanksgiving bird was absent from the menu. Seven hundred pounds of chicken had been prepared so that the vacancy was well filled. Officials of the hospital said that as the turkeys raised on the farm were much smaller this year than usual, they had decided to save them for Christmas.

Many in Rushville Try Simple Remedy

Many Rushville people are surprised at the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This simple remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing such surprising foul matter that ONE TEASPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is astonishing. F. E. Wolcott, druggist.

DAY OBSERVED IN MANY WAYS

Most Folks Spend Thanksgiving
Feasting While Others Roam
Fields in Search of Game.

62 LICENSES OUT THIS WEEK

Chicken Takes Place of Turkey on
Menu at the County Jail and
Poor Asylum Today.

While the majority of folks chose to observe Thanksgiving day by feasting, there were a number who felt the lure of the open fields and went in search of game.

The streets were deserted by noon while most of the people of Rushville were gathered around the well known "groaning" tables. Stores were closed, some of them all day. The banks never opened and the post-office closed at ten o'clock, one city delivery being made. The public schools were closed today until Monday.

The inmates at the county poor farm and the two prisoners at the county jail were not forgotten today and as in years past special efforts were made to give them a fine dinner. Chicken took the place of turkey on the menu at both the jail and the poor farm. The twenty-six inmates at the poor farm were served both chicken and duck and all the things that go with them to make a Thanksgiving dinner. Superintendent Newbold of the poor farm did not raise any turkeys this year.

The two prisoners at the county jail, Marshall Spurrier, colored and Clayton Johnson were given an elaborate dinner by Sheriff Cavitt, consisting of chicken and oysters. The number of prisoners there is the smallest in some time.

More people took advantage of Thanksgiving as a holiday to go hunting than ever before. The woods today were full of hunters and the supply of rabbits promised to be diminished materially providing hunters had any "luck." County Clerk Taylor issued a total of thirty hunting license yesterday, and no doubt could have sold some this morning had the office been open.

The office was crowded most of Wednesday with people wanting hunting licenses. Men who could not get off from their work to secure the licenses sent their wives to procure the necessary paper to enable them to enjoy the day in the woods. Nineteen licenses were issued on Tuesday and thirteen on Monday of this week.

NEW "LITTLE NAVY" LEADER

Death of Rep. Witherspoon Makes
New Selection Necessary.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Nov. 25.—Representative Hensley of Missouri was today picked by the "little navy" contingent of house Democrats to succeed the late Representative Witherspoon of Mississippi as the nominal leader of the late opponents to the administration's preparedness program.

News of Witherspoon's death at Meridan, Miss., was regarded a severe loss to big navy opponents. For years he has lead the house fight on the battleship program.

Oliver M. Offutt and Floyd Woods filed suit Wednesday afternoon against the C. H. & D. railway for damages demanding $100. The plaintiffs alleges that through the negligence of the railway in allowing weeds and grass to grow along its right-of-way a field of six acres of growing wheat owned by Offutt and Woods was destroyed by fire. The fire is alleged to have occurred on June 21, 1914. The farm on which the fire occurred is located near Arlington.

RED CROSS SEAL CAMPAIGN OPENS

Christmas Stickers are Placed on Sale at All Drug Stores and School Children Will Help.

75 PER CENT FOR THE COUNTY

The campaign to sell Red Cross Christmas seals to combat tuberculosis was officially opened in Rushville today by the Rush County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. The seals were placed on sale at all of the drug stores. Seals have been in the hands of the principals of the township graded schools since last Saturday when the Rush County Teachers association was in session here. School children will aid in the work.

It is not definitely decided yet that the Psi Iota Xi sorority will be in charge of the sale in Rushville, but it is highly probable that the sorority girls will undertake the charitable work. They sold seals last year and made a most enviable record. They have the proposition under consideration. Thirteen thousand seals were sold in Rushville alone last holidays.

Seventy-five per cent of the proceeds from the sale goes to the county society to be used in anti-tuberculosis work here.

CAUSES A HITCH IN NEGOTIATIONS

American Demand "Place of Safety"
be Provided Persons on Torpedoed Vessels Holds up Plans.

IN CASE OF WILLIAM P. FRYE

(By United Press.)
Washington, Nov. 25.—Demands of the American government that a "place of safety" be provided for persons on vessels torpedoed by submarines have caused a hitch with Germany in negotiations over the sinking of the American schooner, the William P. Frye.

Although the last American note in the Frye case was sent to Germany over a month ago, Berlin has so far declined to accede to the American principle that open boats in mid-ocean can not be regarded as a place of safety. While both governments are agreed on arbitrating indemnity for the Frye's loss, the reluctance of Germany to concede the other point has prevented arrangements for arbitration.

REAL SPIRIT OF DAY IS LACKING

Much of Thanksgiving Feeling is of
"Jack Horner" Sort, Declares
Dr. D. Ira Lambert.

"WHAT A GOOD BOY AM I"

Thus Exclaims "Turkey Day" Celebrant After Feasting to Full
—Annual Services Held;

So much of the Thanksgiving spirit of the present age is of the "Jack Horner" sort, where the celebrant feasts to his full and then exclaims, "What a Good Boy am I" according to Dr. D. Ira Lambert, pastor of the First Presbyterian church who preached the annual Thanksgiving sermon at St. Paul's M. E. church this morning.

Instead of the real significance of the day being felt, much of it is lost, was the burden of the Rev. Mr. Lambert's sermon.

The union services of the Protestant churches of the city were held at ten o'clock. Special music was furnished by the M. E. choir. The collection was turned over to the visiting nurse fund.

The subject of the Thanksgiving sermon this morning at the St. Paul's Methodist church was "The Keynote of Praise." Text: First Timothy 1-17. "Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God; be honor and glory forever, amen."

"In earnest appeal to His young friend Timothy, St. Paul unfolds the secret motives of his great life. Hurriedly surveying his past, he discloses the keynote thereof in this sublime, strain of praise. Every life its keynote. Every object of nature has its keynote, and when that is struck all life trembles in unison with it.

"A noted violinist played upon the keynote of a great bridge until the great structure swayed and trembled. The keynote of the life of the great apostle was praise not only in a part but all of his writings. Even in the dark cold stenched Mammetine prison he could cry out 'rejoice in the Lord always' and then as if this superlative were not enough added and again I say rejoice.

The spirit of thanksgiving filled all his life and governed it and became the habit of his life. His thoughts and words and acts were one perpetual strain of thanksgiving. That ought to be the attitude of every life. It is a good thing to set apart one day of the year for thanksgiving and praise but it would be more fitting to have one day for all the unkind ungrateful words and deeds and the other three hundred and sixty four for gratitude and thanksgiving.

"It not only needs to cover the while year, but all things as well. A good deal of the modern thanksgiving spirit is of the little 'Jack Horner' kind which feasts itself to the full and then with a superior air cries out 'what a good boy am I'.

"This keynote must so master the life that every event will be marshalled by it until even 'bane and blessing pain and pleasure by the Cross are sanctified,' until we can realize that 'all things work together for good to them that love God' and there shall be one continual thanksgiving.

"But if this be true we must put ourselves in the supreme relationship to God, ourselves, and our fellowmen, as did the great apostle and find the great reservoirs of strength in the four-square life which was his. The things which should walk our thanksgiving are manifold, but

Rush County Man Will Plead Self
Defense in Case in Which he is Charged With Murder.

KILLED HIS FATHER-IN-LAW

First Evidence Will Likely be Introduced Friday—Jury is Not Yet Completed.

It is probable that the introduction of evidence will be started Friday at Noblesville in the murder trial of Cassius C. Smith, a Rush county man who is charged with killing his father-in-law, Marcellus Hollingsworth, near New Augusta, Marion county, on February 19 last.

The case started Wednesday when the first talesmen were examined. When court adjourned late yesterday afternoon, the jury had not been empanelled, but it was expected it would be obtained some time Friday. There was no session of court today on account of this being Thanksgiving.

Smith was born and reared in this county and was the son of the late Walter Smith, who died a few weeks after his son committed the crime. The Smith family lived near Sexton. Fifteen character witnesses have been summoned from here by the defense for next Monday, but it is now believed that the state will have finished its case by that time.

Questioning by the state's attorneys yesterday of the talesmen did not indicate that the death penalty would be asked. No prospective juror was requested to give his opinion on the extreme penalty for murder. A special venire of forty men has been drawn from which to select the jury.

Smith will plead self-defense, and his wife, who is a daughter of the murdered man, will testify in behalf of her husband. She has considerable money in her own right, and has employed counsel to defend her husband including Henry N. Spaan, of Indianapolis. Alva J. Rucker, prosecuting attorney of Marion county, and C. S. Wiltzie, of Indianapolis, are representing the state.

The defense will attempt to prove that Hollingsworth was an excessive drinker and quarreled with his son-in-law and daughter because they were going to move from the farm and leave him alone; that on the evening of the shooting, Hollingsworth was in the kitchen quarreling with Mrs. Smith when Smith came in, that Hollingsworth threatened his daughter and that not till then did Smith draw his revolver and fire twice. Hollingsworth died two hours later.

The state contends there had been ill feeling between the defendant and his father-in-law and that the murder was premeditated. The case was taken to Hamilton county from Marion county on a change of venue.

WITH APOLOGIES TO WALT

Is there a purse with sides so flat, whose contents consisting of this and that, could not produce at least a cent and for a Red Cross Seal be spent? Is there a Hoosier with heart so dead, who to himself hath not yet said, "you can bet your neck I will not fail to use these seals on Indiana woman or a man, who will not say out loud 'I can, and will use Red Cross Seals this year to fight tuberculosis here!'" Ten seals for each the quote's small, let's buy them quick and do not stall.

BANDIT ON HUNGER STRIKE

Gunman Caught in Indianapolis—Refuses to Eat Food.

(By United Press.)
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 25.—Police today declared that Arthur Houser, alleged murderer of W. H. Smith, national cashier of the Woodmen of the World, has not tasted a morsel of food for sixteen days. The hunger strike followed an attempt at suicide frustrated by the Wichita police shortly after he was captured in Indianapolis. Arrangements for forcibly putting food into Houser's stomach was being made today.

MAY BE TAKEN TO STATE REFORMATORY

Ruling of Attorney General Possibly Means Removal of Delbert Newman From State Prison.

ESCAPED FROM STATE FARM

Delbert (Bud) Newman of this city, serving a term of from two to five years in the state prison at Michigan City for escaping from the state penal farm, will likely be transferred to the state reformatory at Jeffersonville, as a result of an opinion handed down yesterday by Attorney General Stotsenburg.

The attorney general held that a person less than thirty years old who is convicted of having escaped while a prisoner at the state penal farm should be committed to the reformatory at Jeffersonville instead of being sent to the state prison. If the opinion of the attorney general is followed all of the prisoners under thirty years old will be sent to the state reformatory.

Governor Ralston said recently that he would ask the next legislature to change the law to provide for the commitment of the younger of the escaped prisoners to the reformatory.

TO BE PUBLIC IN EUROPE SAME DAY

President Wilson Works Industrious on His Forthcoming Message on This Holiday.

IT MUST BE PRINTED TODAY

(By United Press.)
Washington, Nov. 25.—That his message on national preparedness may be read in Europe the day it is delivered to congress, President Wilson locked himself in his study again today and let Thanksgiving day plans take care of themselves. If the message is to get away on a boat reaching Europe before December 7, the president had found, it had to be printed today.

So, while plans for the big dinner were changed from time to time to meet the occasion, the work of completing the final draft of the message went steadily forward.

At the government printing plant enough printers to turn out the documents in an hour after received were kept ready. It appeared that the message would reach New York by tomorrow morning.

Friends of the president saw in his driving work of today confirmation of their belief that the message will prove the most important President Wilson has delivered since elected.

Evangelist Smith Says There Are
Church Members Without Repentance, Courage and Faith.

OTHERS LACK SELF-CONTROL

Declares Resurrection of Christ is
The Gibraltar of the Evidences
of Christianity.

Evangelist J. H. O. Smith in his sermon at the Main Street Christian church revival Wednesday night, showed what some church members lacked. He said some were without repentance, courage, faith and self-control while others have never confessed Christ and have never been baptized.

There were three more conversions last night, bringing the total up to seventy-three. Friday night will be the last night here for the evangelist and his singer, the Rev. H. H. Saunders. Services will be held as usual tonight.

J. H. O. Smith's sermon last night was from the text, Matt. 19:16-22, "What Lack I Yet." He spoke in part as follows.

"In answer to the question, 'Good Master what good thing shall I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus answered, 'Keep the Commandments.' Meaning the Ten Commandments, which were the constitution of the Jewish Law, and especially the moral part of the code. The young man replied 'All these have I kept from my youth up, what lack I yet.' Jesus lived under the Jewish law, and for the reason required its observance. The new dispensation had not been inaugurated, so that the answer given by the Apostles to inquiring sinners, as we have the record in the Acts of the Apostles, was not given in the instance recorded above, for the reason that the facts of the gospel were not complete and the Great Commission had not been given. The Saviour applied a test which touched the weakness of the young man, for he loved his possessions more than he loved Christ.

"Some lack faith in Christ because they say they cannot understand the wars of extermination in the Old Testament or the story of Jonah and the whale. That Christ arose from the dead is a fact of history. His resurrection is the Gibraltar of the evidences of christianity. Christ never asks anyone to believe without evidence, but He has given abundant proof of the facts of the gospel. Some in the church lack faith.

"Others lack repentance. There is some sin, they will not give up, there are some wrongs which they will not right.

"Others have never confessed before men their faith in Christ, 'Every tongue shall confess that Jesus

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not so beautiful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

MAY HAVE TO PAY BACK LARGE SUM

Treasury Department Faces Awkward Position, Hanging on Decision of Supreme Court.

INVOLVES THE REBATE CASES

If Provision of Underwood Bill is Upheld, Depleted Treasury Must Pay Back $20,000,000.

Washington, Nov. 25.—The Democratic administration is approaching a very awkward situation.

There are on the docket of the United States Supreme Court the so-called five per cent. rebate cases. They involve a tremendous sum in customs revenues, loosely estimated at between fifteen and twenty million dollars collected under the provisions of the Underwood tariff law. On the court's decision hangs the fate of these millions.

If the Supreme Court upholds the five per cent rebate provision in the Underwood law, then the sum in dispute belongs to the foreign importers and must be paid back by the government. The treasury deficit long ago became alarming. If this enormous additional sum has to be paid out, it will still further emphasize the failure of the Democratic fiscal policy.

On the other hand, if the Supreme Court decides that the five per cent. provision of the Underwood law is invalid, the highest court in the land will have convicted the Democratic Congress of a humiliating blunder and still further emphasize its record of legislative inefficiency.

The fact that the attorney general in order to save the revenue involved, is attacking the validity of the law Congress worked six months to pass, makes the situation still more complicated.

From a political standpoint, the best thing that could be done is best thing that could happen to the Democratic party in this case would be to have a decision go over until after election.

Whether or not this happens depends largely upon the time the case is heard. It is up to the government to take the first step to advance the date of hear. Litigants on the other side of the case have complained bitterly over what they term unreasonable delay, and for weeks have been urging the government to move more quickly.

Meanwhile, regardless of when the hearing may be held, Democratic leaders are wondering what can be done to offset the attack that will be made on their fiscal policy on the one hand and their legislative efficiency on the other.

GREECE SATISFIES ENTENTE POWERS

Allies Feel Certain That Greeks Will Not Interfere With Their Balkan Campaign.

TRIUMPH FOR CONSTANTINE

(By United Press.)

London, Nov. 25.—Greece has satisfied the allies that there will be no Greek interference with their Balkan campaign under any circumstance according to an Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company.

"The reply," says the message, quoting official authority, "is friendly, meets the Entente powers' demands and gives all guarantees that are considered essential."

The required assurances are said to have been contained in a communication handed by the Athens government to the allies diplomatic representative in answer to Wednesday's joint note.

King Constantine has triumphed, however, in his determination to keep his country neutral. This ended the Greek crisis, it was believed here today.

Figures on Minorities.

Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama is about to don his toga. Already he is bursting with great ideas regarding the Senate. He is strong for cloture—a polite French term which by interpretation, means “gag rule.” Mr. Underwood is accustomed to applying the gag rule, having learned to do so when he was foreman of the Congressional crew that did Woodrow Wilson's bidding at the Capitol. His argument for transferring this instrument of political oppression to the Senate—where, from the beginning free speech has ruled and has greatly benefited the country—is that “the Senate is distinctly a minority body. It does not represent a majority of the people of the country.”

Senators are elected by States. If Mr. Underwood was thinking of himself and of his own States, he is absolutely correct. For he does not represent anything like a majority of the people of Alabama.

Mr. Underwood was elected to the Senate in 1914. By the census of 1910, Alabama had 2,138,093 inhabitants, who certainly had not diminished in number four years later. Yet Mr. Underwood, when elected Senator, received only 63,389 votes. His Republican opponent had 12,320; a Progressive candidate had 4,263; a Socialist got 1,159; there were 2 scattering. This makes a total vote of 81,133 out of a population of 2,138,093.

Of the other States which elected Senators in 1914, the nearest to Alabama in point of population is Iowa, which had 2,224,771 inhabitants by the census of 1910.

Iowa in 1914 voted thus on the Senatorship; Cummins, Republican, 205,832; Connolly, Democrat, 107,251; Spurgeon, Independent, 24,490; Schenck, Progressive, 15,058; Christian, Prohibition, 6,009; McCrillis, Socialist, 8,462. This makes a total of 427,102 votes out of a population of 2,224,771.

In other words, while there were only 86,382 more population in Iowa than in Alabama, there were 345,960 more votes cast. If Alabama had voted as freely as Iowa did, there would have been 410,461 ballots cast instead of the beggarly 81,133.

There is no mystery in these figures. In Iowa every citizen of voting age may go to the polls and vote as he pleases in the full assurance that his vote will be counted as cast. In Alabama a large majority of the citizens of voting age are not permitted to approach the polling-place by reason of peculiar statutes which constitute a political gag rule even more vicious than the one which Mr. Underwood now proposes for the Senate.

If “the Senate is distinctly a minority body,” it is because Mr. Underwood and other Democratic Senators from the Southern States form so large a percentage of its membership.

Even the mysterious and marvelous manipulating methods of Secretary McAdoo cannot uphold the balance in the treasury. The National treasury statements show that in the seven days from November 5 to 12 the balance dropped $10,000,000. Having twice studied out schemes by which the books would do well to burn a lot of midnight oil devising some new plan for making a balance grow between sunset and sunrise.

HOOSIER HISTORY

Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.

INDIANA TO THE FRONT

The prompt energetic action of Governor Morton resulted in Indiana's taking prominent part in the very beginning of the war. The Cincinnati Commercial in commenting upon the passage of Indiana troops through the city, said: “The governor of Indiana has outgeneralled the governor of Ohio. The contrast in the condition of troops proves it. The Hoosier troops are all armed with rifled muskets, are uniformed and furnished with their complement of camp equipment. The stout and brawny appearance of the Indiana troops was universally remarked.”

TEACHERS GATHER FOR CONVENTION

SCIENCE PROFS ALSO MEET

(By United Press.) Chicago, Nov. 25.—Teachers from all over the country gathered here today for the opening sessions of the fifth annual convention of the National Council of Teachers of English at the Auditorium Hotel tonight. Two hundred and fifty delegates the first of the meetings which will continue tomorrow and Saturday. At the same time that the National Council opened its sessions, the National Association of Academic Teachers of Public Speaking convened at the Congress Hotel, with several hundred out of town delegates present. This convention also will be on three days.

The advance guard of 300 delegates to the 15th annual convention of the Central Association of Science and Mathematics Teachers arrived today. The meetings of this organization will start tomorrow at the Carter H. Harrison Technical High School and conclude Saturday night. With these delegates came also delegates to the meetings of the Western Economic Society which convenes at Hotel La Salle tomorrow and continue through Saturday.

CRADLE ROLL DAY.

Cradle Roll Day will be observed by an all day meeting at the M. E. church at Blue Ridge Sunday, November 28, Sunday school at 9:30 followed by an address by Mrs. Earl Haymond of Waldron, superintendent of the cradle roll department. The Rev. V. W. Wykoff, pastor of the First M. E. church of Shelbyville will deliver an address in the afternoon. Bring the little folks. Come and spend the day.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, “Hamburger Brust Thee,” at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless. (Advertisement.)

REDUCE DUTY ON GAS MANTLE

Not Satisfied With That, Makers of Underwood Law, Put Duty on Imported Raw Product.

A COMPARISON IS MADE

Greater Number of Mantles Imported Under New Bill, But Revenue is Much Less.

Washington, Nov. 25.—When the manufacturers of gas mantles sought to illumine the beclouded intellects of the Democratic members of the ways and means committee to Congress, engaged in smearing the Underwood tariff law into some sort of form, they only succeeded in further befuddling those benighted apostles of free trade. The light of reason was to them a blinding glare. It was “light that failed.”

Gas mantles are manufactured in Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Michigan, Wisconsin, Kansas, and New Jersey, a few factories being scattered in other States. About 50 companies are engaged and several millions of dollars in capital are involved. The sales average $4,000,000 annually, and the product amounts to about 65,000,000 mantles. Twenty-six to thirty per cent. of the cost of manufacturing gas mantles goes to labor, the rest to material, overhead charges, etc. The wages paid to labor in this industry are a trifle more than twice as much as those paid in Germany in the same line of work, while material costs from thirty to thirty-five per cent more here than in Germany. Competition among American manufacturers has reduced the price of mantles from 35 and 50 cents each to 10 and 20 cents for the same grade.

Several contentions were made during the hearings on this subject before the House committee. W. E. Brown, representing 95 per cent. of the gas mantle manufacturers, wanted the duties on mantles, and thorium, the chief material from which they are manufactured, to remain as they were under the Republican law, at 40 per cent. He declared that a reduction in duty on thorium would be absorbed by the German producers of that product, inasmuch as they had no competitors. Mr. Dallas Bondeman advocated putting thorium on the free list, stating that if this were done his interests could stand a reduction of the duty on mantles to 30 per cent ad valorem on each. Mr. Bondeman again presented a table showing conclusively that such action would give the German manufacturers an advantage of $3.67 a thousand.

With characteristic bull-headedness the committee put a duty of 25 per cent on gas mantles, not sufficient for protection, and lowered the duty on his product of 40 per cent, which did nobody any good. It was another instance of the classical Democratic policy of giving the foreign manufacturers a double advantage by removing protection from the American industry and putting a duty on a raw material used by that industry. Under the Republican law the American manufacturer of gas mantles at least had a protective duty on his product of forty per cent.

The Underwood tariff law went into effect October 4, 1913. Comparing the period October 1, 1912, to June 30, 1913, under Republican tariff rates with the period October 4, 1913 to June 30, 1914 we find that for the former period there were imported gas mantles to the value of $49,897 on which revenue in the sum of $19,919 was collected, while for the latter period we imported gas mantles to the value of $60,620, which paid revenue in the sum of $15,155. The Democratic argument that lower duty rates increase importations to such an extent as to increase revenues is again proved to be unsound. Here we have an increase of 18 per cent in imports within a period of nine months, and a decrease of 24 per cent in the revenue, a displacement of American labor corresponding to the increase in imports, a loss of revenue badly needed by an impoverished

James E. Watson Says Extension of Foreign Business is Impossible Without Merchant Marine.

GIVES HISTORY OF COMMERCE

Tells Indianapolis Business Men Most of Business is Now Being Carried by Foreign Ships.

“Any effort to build up a larger trade between the United States and South America will be futile until we have a well-developed merchant marine,” asserted James E. Watson of Rushville in an address to members of the Advertisers' Club in the Chamber of Commerce Building Wednesday, says the Indianapolis Star.

Mr. Watson said any program of naval preparedness would be inadequate without a merchant marine, because of the need of auxiliary cruisers and colliers in time of war. “A lack of trading facilities, a lack of banking connections, and the fact that our merchants and manufacturers have not tried to meet the desire of Latin Americans accounts for the condition of our trade with the Southern continent,” said Mr. Watson.

“Without ships we can not hope to compete with Europe and other countries. In 1805 as much as 97 per cent. of our foreign commerce was carried in American bottoms, 65 per cent, in 1861, and last year only 64 per cent.”

Laws enforcing higher standards of construction and maintenance and better pay and care for crews of American ships have sent the traffic abroad, he explained. Subsidies, in his opinion, are the only means to offset the lower costs of foreign shipping. He declared against government ownership of ships because it might lead to government ownership of other activities, which should be left to private initiative.

“We hear talk of a war with Japan,” he continued. “That is impossible. Since the Pacific steamer Minnesota was withdrawn from American registry because of the law forbidding railroads to own steamships, our last vessel has disappeared from the Pacific and it is a Japanese lake.”

“To communicate with our island naval stations we must use vessels flying the Japanese flags. The War Department recently issued an estimate that it could man the Philippines with 250,000 men in sixty days, supposing the men were available. It couldn't do it in sixty months, because the Japanese control the ocean.”

treasury, and no diminution in the price of gas mantles to the public. It is one more example of the fallacy policy of the Democratic Party.

Why's "Gets-It," for Corns, Like a Kiss?

Because Everybody Tries It, Everybody Likes It. It's Painless and Takes But a Moment to Apply.

"Gets-It" is the wonder of the corn-remover world. Millions say so, because millions have used it. What makes it the biggest selling corn-remedy on earth today. "Gets-It" will surely get that corn or callus trouble away for good. It's time to get rid of—take it right on "clean as a whistle." Apply it in 2 seconds.

—put your stocking and shoe right over it—nothing to stick, nothing to burn. You needn't fuss with thick blisters that make a package out of your foot. No knives, razors and scissors no tape, no trouble. It's simplicity itself, sure, quick, reliable. Try it also for chapped hands.
"Gets-It" is sold at all drug stores, 25¢ a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

New York, Nov. 25.—The slowly dying custom of playing big football games on Thanksgiving is reflected in today's schedule. Only two games of more than local interest are scheduled for Eastern teams. In the West, one inter-sectional combat—the Syracuse-Montana game—alone is of more than passing interest. At Philadelphia and Pittsburgh this afternoon the two undefeated teams of the East swing into action, and on the results hinges to a large extent whether Cornell will have an edge on Pittsburgh or vice versa in the final accounting. Cornell should have a comparatively easy time with Pennsylvania, which is completing a disastrous year's replete with coaching troubles. Pitt, however, has a tough proposition in Penn State, which already has licked Pennsylvania and came near beating Harvard.

WAR NEWS OF ONE YEAR AGO TODAY
Seven hundred British marines perished when the British battleship Bulwark blew up at Sheerness by accident the British claimed. Russia sent Prince Troubotzkoy to Belgrade to settle the quarrel between Bulgaria and Serbia and win Bulgaria's support for the allies. A Russian committee reported thousands of women and babies being hanged or shot in Galicia.
Germany's request for an armistice in the Argonne was refused. England threatened further steps to protect her interests if the U. S. didn't curb Ecuador's and Colombia's wireless stations' activities in connection with the Germans.

CONGRESS START TO BE DEFENSE DAY

Defense Society Asks Co-operation of All Organizations to Make Monday, December 6 Notable Day

CARD APPEAL WILL BE MADE

Monday, December 6th, the opening day of Congress, has been named by the Defense Society as "Defense Day" throughout the United States,—the most timely occasion for holding mass meetings and addressing letters and telegrams to Congress on behalf of better national defense. In case there is an earlier meeting of Congress the opening day will then be chosen for "American Defense Day."

In order to make the occasion an impressive one, the American Defense Society has requested the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce of the various cities, asking that they designate this day as a Flag Day over the city of Rushville, on which day all citizens who are in favor of a greater national defense are urgently requested to show such belief by hanging out flags at every house.

At the same time the American Defense Society is distributing a card appeal to be signed by voters and sent to their respective Congressmen and Senators, urging action at the next session of Congress in favor of adequate national defense. Cards may be had upon request at the National Headquarters of the American Defense Society, 303 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

TWENTY-FIVE TAKE PART IN BIG RACE

Annual Turkey Trot Attracts Classy Field of Starters in Indianapolis Today

MANY PRIZES WERE OFFERED

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 25.—The annual "turkey trot" a road race under the auspices of the consolidated Motorcycle club took a flying start at Thirty-ninth and Northwestern avenue today, going north to Noblesville. The route includes Noblesville, Westfield, Lebanon, and returning to Indianapolis on the Dixie air line road. There were 25 entries, including amateurs and professionals. According to F. A. M. state commissioner Carr, this promised to be one of the most successful runs ever staged here. There were three prizes in each of the four divisions, with money for pros and medals and merchandise prizes for amateurs. The event was open to any rider in the state. The four divisions were singles, twins, sidecars and factory racing teams. All took part in the same run with the side cars starting first. It was expected the course would be turned in one hour and thirty minutes or better.

TEAM OF "DEMONS"

(By United Press.)
Seymour, Ind., Nov. 25.—Football enthusiasts from Columbus came here today with a team of "demons" confident they would take home the big end of the score of a game with the local team. Several college players have been secured by the local aggregation, however, and with their help the home team said they could not lose. Much interest has been worked up over the game as these two cities are strong rivals in everything.

RUSHVILLE WON.

The Rushville high school team defeated the Centerville team last night 32 to 23. The game was only a practice game for the locals. Many people took advantage of the opportunity and inspected the new gym. It was the first public appearance of the high school team on the new floor.

Mrs. Winifred Dill and children, Wade and Emily, went to Falmouth this morning to spend the week end with relatives.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

DRINK a glass of real hot water
before breakfast to wash
out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, biliousness, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

what is needed is that supreme mastery of our life and its resources which 'overcome the world.'

'This fourfold anchorage of his life was first found in the great truth of the Fatherhood of God. There can be no real gratitude and thanksgiving without a recognition of God. The atheist, has no occasion for a thanksgiving. He has no one to thank unless he thanks himself because without the fatherhood of God he can not catch the true spirit of even the brotherhood of man and therefore cannot even thank his neighbors aright. The deist has no occasion for a thanksgiving because he would ask no one but nature to thank. It remains for the theist, the believer in a personal god to put himself in the right attitude of thanksgiving.

'But when he remembers that this divine author of all good is his father then his heart rises up with a perpetual gratitude which time does not alter, and he sings, 'My father is rich—I am a child of the kingdom.'

'The second place he declares this gratitude on behalf of the Saviourhood of Christ. Unless we fathom our lost condition and see how much we owe to our redemption through Christ unless we remember we are 'bought with a price,' unless we shall see that infinite love until we cry, 'Oh, it is wonderful that we should care for me, enough to die for me,' we can never bring from our lives the true song of gratitude and offer the sweet incense of praise.

'The third element of which he here speaks is the right relationship to others, or the true brotherhood of man. No man can be truly grateful and forget his brother. 'How can a man love God whom he has not seen and hates his brother whom he has seen.' The true brotherhood of man rests in the fatherhood of God and when that is fully realized.

'The war drum shall throb no longer, And the battle flags be furled. In the Parliament of man The Federation of the World.'

And one glad anthem of praise shall ascend unto the divine Author and Father of us all.

'One other thing is needed to complete this four fold relationship. We must not only be in the right attitude towards God and our fellow men, but we must do; we must practice it. And so he speaks of the servant hood of self. No life learns the key to thanksgiving until it has learned to serve. The motto of the British sovereigns for generations and that spirit which has made them great is the German motto from their old Anglo-Saxon ancestors, 'Ich Dien, I Serve.'

Thus the greatest characters of earth have found true nobility and triumph in service for others.

'The best of life comes when it has caught this fourfold vision and enacted it. There is a legend that a wizard called Ingratitude once waved his wand over an Oriental city and turned all to stone and men and beasts alike stood just where they were like lifeless. But a youth in whose being thrilled hope and thanksgiving came by with a silver trumpet and blew one long and cheering note and all leaped again into life and victory.

'Thus it ever is with a spirit of gratitude and thanksgiving. Life and spring time rise at its command and the soul blends with the life eternal.'

Don't Suffer—Laugh At Stomach Misery

Johnson's Drug Store Will Return
The Money if Mi-o-na Does
Not Relieve Dyspepsia

Among all the remedies in Johnson's popular drug store, there are that they have willing to sell on a guarantee to refund the money if they do not cure.

Mi-o-na, the famous dyspepsia remedy has helped so many of their customers that Johnson says, 'If this remedy does not relieve you, come back to our store and we will cheerfully return your money.'

Anyone who has dyspepsia, indigestion, headaches, dizzy feelings or liver troubles, should take advantage of this chance to be made well without risk of spending their money to no purpose. Mi-o-na will relieve you, will regulate the digestion, will enable you to eat what you want. If it does not do all this it will not cost you a cent.

Johnson's Drug Store has sold hundreds of boxes of Mi-o-na and has yet to receive the first complaint from any customer. Such a record is simply marvelous and speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

Do not suffer a day longer with disordered digestion. If Mi-o-na does not give you complete satisfaction you have Johnson's personal guarantee to return your money.

HARRY CRAWFORD ASKS A DIVORCE

Brings Suit Against Nettie Mae Orme-Crawford, Alleging She Treated Him Cruelly.

INDISCRETE ACTS CHARGED

Harry Crawford has filed suit for divorce from his wife, Mrs. Nettie Mae Orme-Crawford. The complaint states that they were married August 3, 1913 and separated on March 4, 1914. He alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, stating that she was cold and indifferent towards him.

The complaint states that she was high tempered and ill-natured and was continually doing indiscrete acts and things for the purpose of tormenting him and to effect a separation. The plaintiff states that she told him she did not love him and that their married life was one of continual wrangle. Chauncey Duncan represents the plaintiff.

REAR ADMIRAL WAS ONCE DISMISSED

British Naval Officer Lost His Vessel And Appointment Was Against Traditions

NOW RANKS HIGH IN SERVICE

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Oct. 26 (By Mail)—Dismissed in 1910 with dishonor for losing his ship, Captain E. S. Fitzherbert has just been appointed a Rear Admiral of the British navy, squarely against the traditions of the service.

Until the great war began the Admiralty adhered strictly to the practice of demoting commanders who lost their ships through negligence and never granting them another command. Captain Fitzherbert lost his vessel, the Cruiser Bedford, by stranding on the Korean coast. He was court-martialed and dismissed. Later he was allowed to reenter the navy as a superintendent of contract-built ships. His success in this work re-established the Admiralty's confidence in Fitzherbert and he is now in the high ranks of the service.

Rear Admiral Fitzherbert is a brother of Lord Stafford.

WOULD GARB MEN IN MANY COLORS

Uniforms Have Proved Failure as Far as Invisibility is Concerned, it is Said

Khaki Makes Good Target

English Officer Suggests That One Man be Dressed in Blue Another in Red and so On

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Oct. 13 (By Mail)—Khaki, field grey and German green as invisible colors for armies are dismal failures. Fourteen months of war in the field has proved that the most invisible army of all would be one whose soldiers were clad in models of Joseph's coat.

Such at least is the verdict of a high British officer, who in months at the front has made a study of the invisibility of colors.

In clothing an army, the highest point of invisibility he says would be obtained by garbing each man in a different color; one in green, the next in blue, another in grey, one in red and so alternately, according to the color expert's scheme. If this proved impracticable each man should be dressed in a combination of soft toned colors. Either scheme says the officer, would enable an entire army corps to merge inconspicuously into any background.

Like the Scottish kilts, the olive-drab khaki of the British army is based on custom, not science, he declared. Khaki originated in the British Indian army and later got to England. The European war has shown that it is far more satisfactory on the Indian plains or the African veldt than limned against the landscape of France or Belgium.

Observers unanimously have reported that against the snows of winter or the green foliage of spring or summer, the khaki-clad Tommy is a conspicuous target. The same is declared to be true of the greyish green of the German uniforms.

THE MOST DISTRESSING SIGHT IN THE WORLD

during the summer is a fat man wearing a sport shirt and the most distressing sight in the winter is to see someone trying to get along without A GOOD STORM BUGGY. If you knew how warm one of my storm buggies would keep you, how well they are made, now nice they look, and what a general comfort they would be to the whole family, you certainly would own one before the end of the week. I have used special pains to obtain a line of storm buggies that have all the little things that make them desirable, quality and style together with a comfortably designed cushion and back, easy riding springs, fine finish and the best of material throughout, are some of the essential things found on them and you are welcome at all times to call and see for yourself and I assure you it will be a pleasure to show you the detail construction of these buggies at any time. The construction of a STORM BUGGY makes lots of difference in the draft and I will explain to you why these buggies are lighter draft than others. It only takes a few minutes of your time to look at our stock and it will mean years of regret if you don't. Now is the time to get ready for winter. SO DO IT NOW.

YELLOW BOOK IS A BAROMETER

President Wilson Keeps in Touch
With Sentiment of People
Through Newspaper Clippings

TWO MEN READ THE PAPERS

Mighty Little Going on That he Does
Not Know—Nothing Gets by
White House

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—Joseph P. Tumulty, "is a devoted reader of the Yellow Book. This is not a magazine of French wars nor a theatrical publication, nor anything like that. In fact the public cannot purchase it at any newsstand or book store. There has been only one issue, a strictly limited edition consisting of a single copy."

The Yellow Book is a collection of clippings from fifty representative newspapers published throughout the country, dealing with administrative, political and general governmental questions. It is through the daily additions to this book that President Wilson keeps in touch with public thought.

President Wilson has been credited with this keen practice of keeping his ear to the ground, his finger on the public pulse and his eyes on the "score-board" of national sentiment very closely. It is one of his ways of following the thought of the people, as reflected in the press. The President does not have time to read fifty papers; at least not every day. The White House therefore, has a clipping bureau consisting of the newspapers and two men to do the clipping.

Every evening as he leaves the White House, Secretary Tumulty stops for The Yellow Book and takes it home with him, there to peruse it under the influence of a good cigar and comfortable slippers. In the morning he takes it back to the Executive offices and if, on the previous evening, he has found any item he thinks would be of interest to the President, he tells the executive all about it.

Usually there are no extraordinary results from either the President's or Secretary Tumulty's reading of The Yellow Book but recently there was an example of what can result. A story had been published in a metropolitan newspaper which did not coincide with the facts.

Accordingly, the author was politely but firmly handed his passports at the White House offices and it was several days before he was again received.

Dispatches from Cornish, N. H., at the time the President was forming his second Louisiana note to Germany, further indicated that the President watches The Fourth estate. It was then reported that President Wilson was reading the smaller papers of the country, rather er than the metropolitan dailies, on the assumption that the former are closer to their constituents than the latter. It has been said that this reading had something to do with the phraseology of the note.

At any rate, there is mighty little that goes on in this country, having to do with the nation's business that gets by the White House Yellow Book.

MUNCIE EATS FISH FOR DINNER TODAY

Mayor Sets Example And Turkey Was Missing From Many Tables—Fighting H. C. L.

CHEAPER FOR POOR PEOPLE

(By United Press.)
Muncie, Ind., Nov. 25.—Mayor Rollin H. Bunch sat down today to a fish dinner, while the breezes wafted into him from his neighbors kitchens the odors of savory turkeys.

Mayor Bunch realized too late that the enthusiasm of a new idea one may commit himself to a sorrowful duty. Recently, when a movement was started here for fish dinners for Thanksgiving day, "because turkeys are too expensive for poor folk," Mayor Bunch and other well to do people eagerly approved the sacrifice. Said Mayor Bunch:

"I urge the idea on everybody strongly. It is very painful on the man next door, to see his neighbor and his neighbors friends surrounding a turkey platter when he knows that he and his wife and his kiddies are unable to have the same fare."

The mayor realized even more fully today how "very painful" it is, but he fortified himself with the thought that fish really contains more nutriment than turkey.

Scientists discover the cause of bleeding gums and loose teeth

The old idea that bleeding gums and loose teeth (symptoms of pyorrhea) are due to little pieces of tartar or bone under the gums, has been exploded. Scientists have made the astounding discovery that this disease is caused by a germ which is found in every human mouth.

This germ is the most active and destructive enemy of your teeth. Are you protecting them against it? You can ward off its constant attack and escape the dread results of the disease by using the proper corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for this treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Seneco Tooth Paste. Seneco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Seneco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Seneco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 2 1/2 oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Seneco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sental Remedies Co., 506 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

TAX COLLECTED
IN ALL SEASONS

Foreign Countries Never Fail to Levy Tariff Rates, Even on Christmas Gifts.

INQUIRIES ARE RECEIVED

Many Persons Write Washington to Know What Custom Duties
They Must Pay.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Many weeks in advance, the preparations are made for the international tours of Santa Claus. Americans who are planning to send Christmas presents to persons in foreign countries want to be sure that those who receive the gifts will not be compelled to pay any charges. Many letters come annually to Washington, asking what to do to avoid any difficulties. The communications have already begun to arrive, and are being answered by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce.

The writers of these letters which, before the end of the year, will have come from every part of the country, are particularly interested in tariff rates which must be paid on gifts in the lands to which they are sent. Many express regret that there should be such a thing as a foreign tariff in the season of generous giving. Some indicate that they think the charges are really omitted. They believe that during the holidays the barriers are torn down.

The truth, however, must be told in replying to these inquiries, and the Bureau is compelled to inform its correspondents that whatever the customs tax is in any foreign land on any class of presents, that tax is collected in every season.

Many persons who write to Washington asking for tariff rates in particular countries, fail to specify the kinds of articles that are to be sent abroad as Christmas gifts. It is quite necessary that such details should be given in order to learn the amount of the tax. The Bureau cannot send out an entire tariff schedule in answer to each letter, and even if it did, very few persons would know what to do with it after they received the document.

The first of the 1915 letters arrived on November 11, and was addressed to the Treasury Department. The writer asked for the rate on "Christmas gifts" to Canada, and the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, to which the matter was forwarded, was unable to reply until it was known whether it was some mechanical toy for a child, a diamond stick pin for an absent friend or a warm garment for some deserving person, that was to be sent as a gift across the national boundary. A large proportion of the letters usually received have this same defect. They are sent to various departments in Washington, every Christmas season. But all come eventually to the Bureau which has the desired information.

Many persons in the past have asked what method should be adopted in order that the tariff charge might be paid at the point of shipment in this country, by the giver of the gift. All such queries have been answered uniformly with the statement that there is no direct way in which the import duty charged by another country can be paid here, but if the package is placed in the charge of an express company, provision can be made for payment of duty by the express agent abroad.

Although there is no exemption from custom house charges for Christmas gifts, there are some conditions under which certain gifts going from country may escape payment. Some governments rule that wedding presents brought in by subjects shall not be taxed. Some also exempt possessions that are part of an inheritance. But the season of universal giving is not on the tariff calendar as one when the pathways between the nations shall be cleared of obstructions.

This is Turkey Gobbler's
Thanksgiving Swan Song

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Somewhere Near Nirvana, 4 A. M., Nov. 25.—I A. T. Gobbler, being about to depart this life by virtue of the exigencies of fate, President Wilson's proclamation and other circumstances governed largely by the criterion of so many cents per pound do, as I stand upon the brink of eternity, gazing down a fearsome vista of chopping blocks, and axes, and silver, and snowy linen, and many platters, declare this to be my final message to a cold and hungry world.

Yesterday an Egg, today a Square Meal and tomorrow a Feather Duster! Woo is me! Rudely sat upon by an old woman for days before I reach the world, heckled through infancy by hawks and foxes, in childhood ignored, and stuffed to stupidity in the fullness of youth with treacherous food that foreshadows fate even as it fattens, I am butchered in my prime to give some boy a stomach ache. To gobble and be gobbled is the keynote of my life. Would that I might live to see my wattle wither! But no, my kin and I must struggle on, walking head first out of saloons, or riding in delivery wagons wrapped in paper sacks; ruminating in dark cellars on the death to come at dawn; or, fettered in abandoned coal bins, dreaming of cosy tree top roosts of former days, nor wotting aught of the cranberry garnished bier that is to be. A tragic life whose end I greet, serene in the knowledge that I shall stand forth showing no white feather, having none. (Signed)—A. T. GOBBLER.

TELLS WHAT IS LACKED BY SOME

Christ is Lord.

"Some have never been baptized, a commandment enjoined by Christ upon all who have arrived at years of accountability.

"Some lack courage to stand for Christ in the presence of opposition. Others lack knowledge of the word of God, although we have an open bible and all can know the will of God. Others lack self-control. We cannot govern our tongues as we should. Some have an ungovernable temper. Others lack patience, and others Godliness. And so many lack brotherly kindness. And most of us are lacking love.

"When weighted in the balance in which God weighs men, we all fall short and need the mercy of God. None of us will be justified because we have perfectly kept a perfect law. We therefore need forgiveness, and God's grace if we are to be saved at all."

NO TURKEY FOR INMATES

Logansport, Ind., Nov. 25.—When the 1,100 men and women confined and employed at the Northern hospital for the insane at Longeliffe here sat down to dinner today, the usual Thanksgiving bird was absent from the menu. Seven hundred pounds of chicken had been prepared so that the vacancy was well filled. Officials of the hospital said that as the turkeys raised on the farm were much smaller this year than usual, they had decided to save them for Christmas.

Many in Rushville
Try Simple Remedy

Many Rushville people are surprised at the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This simple remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing such surprising foul matter that ONE TEASPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is astonishing. F. E. Wolcott, druggist

The Spirit of Thanksgiving

Should prevail among our people for many reasons

¶ Our Land is free from the frightful havoc of war. We have Peace.

¶ Our State is in the very heart of a vast territory rich in the products of the soil and blessed with the bounties of nature.

¶ Our County, with lands unexcelled in fertility, with a citizenship unsurpassed in character, and with evident material improvements and prosperity, has conditions necessary for ideal home life.

¶ Each Individual Life is enriched by cultivating a Spirit of Appreciation for the innumerable blessings we all enjoy.
